

Short term pain - long term gain

WINDOWS

Single glazed aluminium windows are a cost effective option, and some meet the new NCC requirements

But

Solid timber double glazed windows, although more expensive, give greater thermal efficiency

THERMAL MASS

Selecting materials with good thermal mass like HempCrete, although initially more expensive, have excellent thermal & Acoustic properties